Dear Mr. Crose:

Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, has asked me to thank you for your letter of 1 May 1959. He wishes to express to Mrs. Crose and to you his appreciation of the hopes expressed for the improvement in the health of his brother, John Foster Dulles.

I am enclosing a copy of his New Orleans speech, which you requested. There is no English translation as yet of Khrushchev's book "Toward Victory in Peaceful Competition With Capitalism."

Again, thank you for your very kind letter.

Sincerely,

Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director
